1. In the parable of the talents, is that always about money?
2. Has a person sinned if he has tried to get people to come to Jesus, but failed and so tries to show by example His worth?
3. If God is no respecter of persons, then what do you say about a person that asks God for something and gets it?
4. The caller has an Italian friend who married a black woman. He has been told that this is not condoned in the Bible. Another has said that this is OK. Who is right?
5. The caller wants to know if there are any prophets today, and if so, are they prophesying?
6. The caller states that you claim that the Church of Christ has no formal institutions. Then explain what is Florida College and what is its affiliation with the Church of Christ?
