1. Some people pray regularly, but say that their prayers are not answered. How should one pray?
2. Why do I pray and pray, but things get worse?
3. Will God give back to us, as we have given to him?
4. According to the parable of the sower, we should spread the word to everyone, even to the sinner and it's their job to listen and obey. Does that mean we will be punished if they don't?
