1. Please clarify when Jesus said to obey His commandments, He did not mean the Ten Commandments.
2. Is it true that Abraham and Sarah had the same father? Is that why he called her his sister?
3. When the Lord's Supper is being observed, would it be wrong to just pick up a piece of bread that is already been broken or do you have to break off a piece when the tray is passed?
4. Is there a rule about the way young ladies should dress – other than in Timothy, because I think that it is for wives of elders and deacons?
